Nene

Your Office

As well as providing everything to equip your warehouse, Nene can also fully furnish your office.

Our comprehensive Office Furniture brochure contains an extensive range of functional and stylish furniture and equipment, including desks, workstations, chairs and filing cabinets, to meet all your office needs. All stock is available for sale or hire at competitive trade prices.

To ensure you select the most suitable equipment and make the most practical use of your space, our experienced design engineers and installation teams are available to offer advice and consultation. We can also assist with the planning and management of major refurbishment projects - including flooring and building modifications.

Deliveries can be made to anywhere in the UK and you can order direct from the brochure. So whether you are undertaking a large refurbishment or furnishing a small office, Nene can do it all.
